

2011-2012 SEMINAR SERIES

Thursday, September 22, 2011

7:00p.m. to 9:00p.m.

I've just bought an old house...

Homeowners are led through the steps on how to explore the history of local property, and the people who built and lived in the home through its lifetime.

Will also include discussion on the use of archival material.

Thursday, October 20, 2011

7:00p.m. to 9:00 p.m.

The Evolution of Women's Fashion

Through the use of historic photographs and the Museum's costume collection, participants will discover how women's fashion evolved during the late Nineteenth and early Twentieth Century.

Saturday, November 19, 2011

9:00a.m. to 12:00p.m.

Care & Repair of Paper Documents

This hands on seminar will give participants practical experience on how to clean, repair and store paper records. Instructed by Oxford County

Archivist Mary Gladwin.

Thursday, January 19, 2012

7:00p.m. to 9:00p.m.

Local History Research

What can you learn about the people, places and events in St. Marys by visiting the R. Lorne Eedy Archives.

Saturday, February 18, 2012

Our Limestone Buildings and What They Tell Us

9:00a.m. to 11:00a.m.

Discover the architects and stonemasons who built some of St. Marys most interesting limestone buildings.

Thursday, March 15, 2012

7:00p.m. to 9:00p.m.

Repair, Restore, Renovate

Some local homeowners explain how they turned an old house into a comfortable contemporary home while still respecting its history. Ask them questions and share your own stories!

Cost: $10.00 per session or $50.00 for all six seminars

For more information or to register for a seminar contact the Museum at 519-284-3556 or museum@town.stmarys.on.ca